PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Chiropractic Assistants throughout the United States are being recognized for their dedication to their profession during the week of October 19th through 24th, 1987; and

WHEREAS, Chiropractic Assistant joins forces in educating the public of the importance of spinal health; and

WHEREAS, over 60,000 Chiropractic Assistants in the United States celebrate a career in the specialized health field of Chiropractic; and

WHEREAS, doctors of Chiropractic take the time to salute their assistants for their long hours of support and dedication, acknowledging the helping hand that is always there for them;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRED CERBO, Mayor of the City of Hackensack does hereby join with the New Jersey Chiropractic Assistants Association in proclaiming the week of October 19th - 24th, 1987, as Chiropractic Assistants Week.

Mrs. Dukes advised the Mayor that her Docket was completed.

Mayor Cerbo thanked her and asked the member of Council, City Manager and City Attorney if they had anything to report.

Councilman Smith reported that there will be a Solid Waste Hearing here in the Council Chambers on Thursday, October 29, 1987, at 7:30 P. M. He said this hearing will be held for the Apartment dwellers and the condo owners, but anyone can attend.

The Mayor opened the meeting to the public for discussion of City business.

197

Elaine Berger, 185 Prospect Avenue, stated that at the last meeting two matters were brought forth, the traffic light on Prospect Avenue and the Air Condition to be included in the heat ordinance.

The Manager stated that nothing can be done with the traffic light on Prospect until there is a change in the traffic flow and the Chief has advised that the intersection is ok for now.

Relative to the Air Condition, the Manager stated there are requirements in the BOCA Code as it relates to the air exchange. He has asked other communities if they have adopted an ordinance and is waiting for their reply.

Anthony Iaconi, 48 Brook Street, asked the purpose of lights in Foschini Park for baseball and what the cut-off time will be.

Mayor Cerbo advised that the lights are not just for baseball and a cut-off time has not been established.

Mr. Iaconi felt the matter should be reviewed as it relates to disturbing the residents in the area.

Eric Martindale, 251 Spring Valley Avenue, again, spoke on the Borgs Woods issue and Mayor Cerbo advised him that the City does not have anything new to give him.

Eugene Marshall, 119 Poplar Avenue, representing the Hackensack Neighborhood Civic Association, said they are receiving complaints that someone is living in a garage at 377 First Street, which is a prohibited use and 223 Stanley Place is not boarded properly. These complaints have been reported to the City, but the neighbors in the area are not satisfied. He advised that there have been indications of drug traffic in that immediate area. He asked that something be done.

Mayor Cerbo asked the Manager to look into the matter.

Motion offered by Mr. Della Torre, seconded by Mr. Francis that the public hearing be closed. Carried.

Motion offered by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Della Torre that the meeting be adjourned. Carried.
